You Don't Have To Be Everything

The Ghost Butlers movie was so good!
Yea, I loved the cartoon show back then too!

It's almost dinner time.
Let's find something to eat.

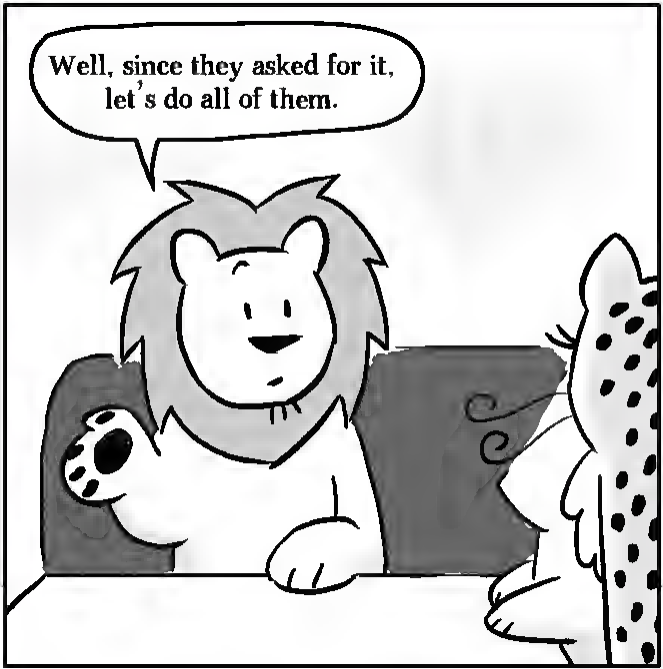
You don't wanna check out the menu Cheetah-B?
I'll have the apple sauce pasta. No restaurant does it better than here.
I'm catching up with reader comments.

Some readers want more different content in the comic...
Such as?

Drawing requests, horror stories, thriller themes, more romance, human character stories, letter to editor, funnier stories, another style...

That's quite a lot.



Well, since they asked for it, let's do all of them.

Can we really do everything?
I think the point is, do we have to do everything?

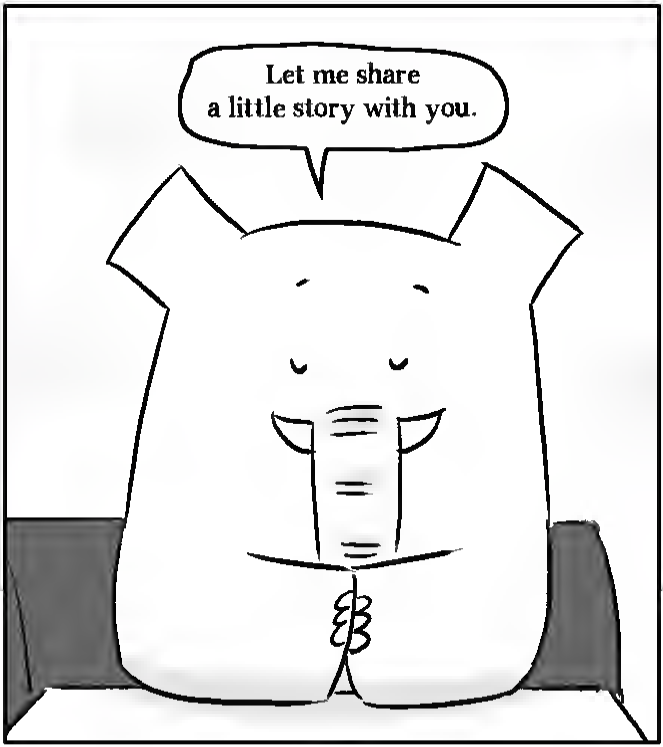
They want it, we do it.
Everyone's happy.
Easy!

Do you think it's really this simple?
Will everyone be happy?
Why not?
You always love to complicate things!

Well...



Let me share
a little story with you.

We go to the cinema to watch movies.

We love the cinema...

...because it's speciality is providing a great movie experience.

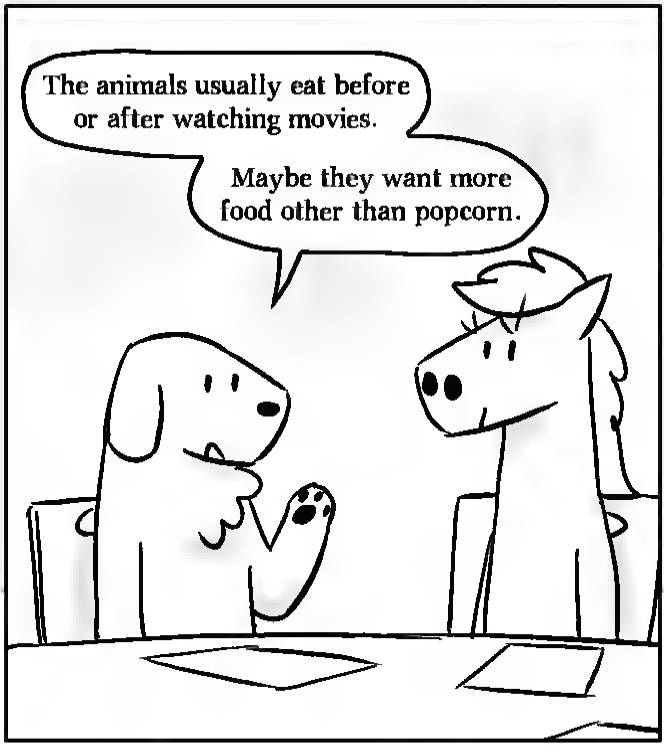
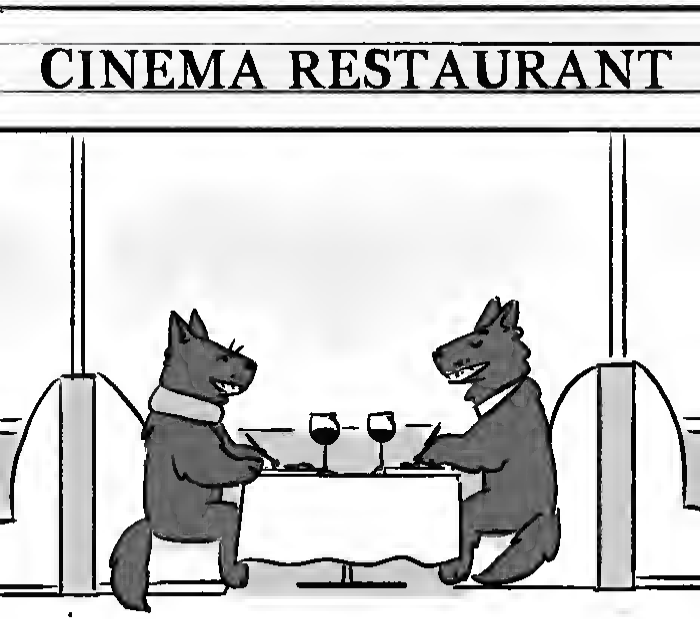
What else can we do to improve the cinema?



The animals usually eat before or after watching movies.
Maybe they want more food other than popcorn.

Good point, it'll be great if they dine here at the cinema as well!



Let's add a restaurant to the cinema then!

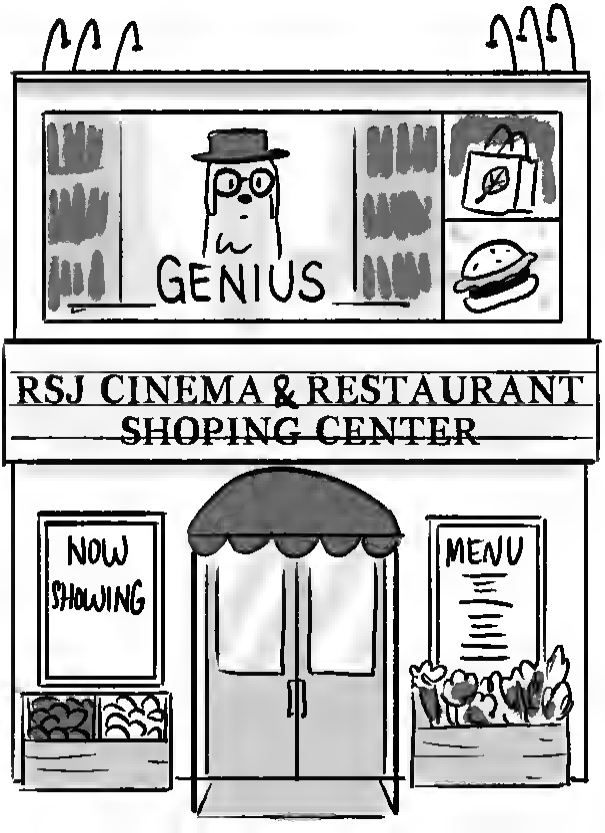
Some animals also do some shopping in the mall near by.
They can buy groceries or something after watching a movie.

Great point!
Let's add some shops to the cinema then!



Everyone needs some kind of transport to get to the cinema.
MEETING
Right! Let's add a shuttle bus station!

Let's go to watch a movie!
Sure!

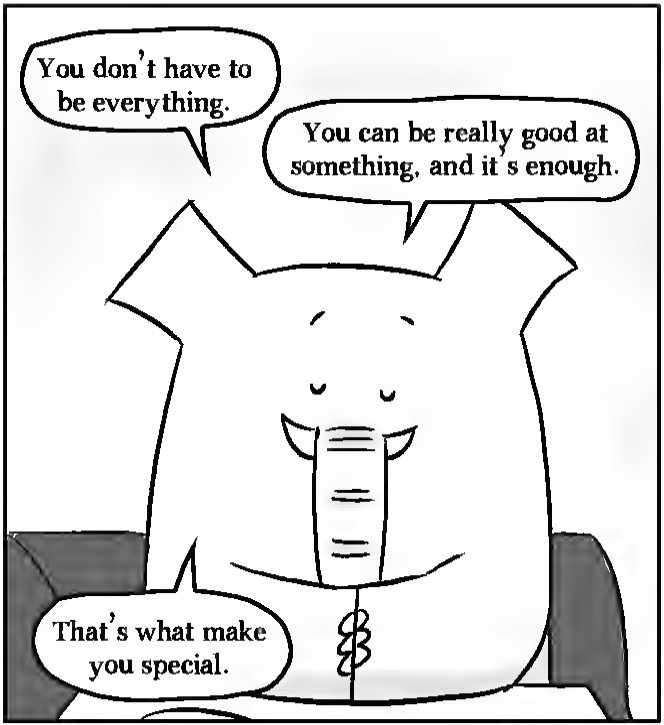
Uh, what is this weird complex?
I have no idea.

Let's go to another cinema.
I wanna eat popcorn.



You don't have to be everything.
You can be really good at something, and it's enough.
That's what make you special.

This restaurant is famous because it focuses on making this pasta really good.

If we mix all the best pastas in town,
I don't think it will taste good.

So you mean, if RSJ tries to be everything...

I get it.
If we try to be everything, we will end up being nothing.
Do what you do best, and do it well.

Alright, master...
I'll take your advice
Um...so what are we going do for the next episode?

Thanks for all your lovely comments as always!
thank you!!
Recently I landed several new illustration jobs, life will be busier but I'll do my best to keep delivering great RSJ stories to you!
